

Let's talk

Hoarding and Squalor, a community response.

Gain information and practical strategies

when working with clients affected by hoarding and squalor. This is for experienced staff working in the Western Metropolitan Region of Melbourne. This is funded by Support for High Risk Tenancies, West Metro Division and supported by PHaMs, The Salvation Army, North Melbourne.

This forum includes leading experts in hoarding and squalor;

- ✓ Stephen MacFarlane.
- ✓ Metropolitan Fire Brigade
- ✓ Tania Reid – Clutter & Hoarding Practitioner, For the Crowded House
- ✓ Case studies will be presented to enhance learning and discussions

This forum is limited to 50 people. Attendees will be selected from a range of backgrounds and organisations. If you are not selected to attend, you will be put on a waiting list and contacted next year to attend the next forum.

If you attended the forum in November last year, you are not eligible to attend this one. The content will be similar.

You will receive an email on the 8th March to confirm or waitlist your attendance.

Time: 10am – 3pm.

Where: James Barker House, 64 Buckley St, Footscray

Cost: FREE!

You asked for it and we want it! All attendees will be asked to send in de-identified case studies which may be used on the day.

Register here - you may need to copy and paste you're your browser

<https://crowdedhouse.wufoo.com/forms/qmy8la508jh10e/>

Contact: Tania at forthecrowdedhouse@gmail.com