

Who's driving the bus?

Training for those working with clients living in clutter or hoarding

This afternoon training includes;

- How to use the “Who’s Driving the Bus” tool with clients
- How to understand ambivalence and risk
- How to support clients in change

This training will enhance the skills of workers who support clients with clutter or hoarding behaviours. The “Who’s Driving the Bus” exercise translates the CBT (cognitive behaviour therapy) theory into a simple practical tool and case examples will be discussed.

This training is presented by Tania Reid, from For the Crowded House in Melbourne. After 12 years in the community sector, Tania is now a specialist with years’ experience working with people affected by clutter, hoarding and squalor. She has presented at the last 2 National Hoarding and Squalor Conferences in Sydney.
